

Chapter 5:

What a Wizard Is Prepared For

I want to find the position
of...

the deadly secret in the Kingdom of Fleur

five years ago in the oldest Throne Room

We should research and create weapons
and machines on which magic has an effect—
before it's too late!

This
country
relies too heavily on magic!

How
much longer?

Because
you can't trust
magic!

What's
wrong with depending on magic in the first place?!

The
just suspends

time,
right?
That's
what it's good for!

He is making your magical

If I can make something like this, then surely the
Magic Council
has created
for yourself

Look at what I made
with my daughter! A barrier that can block
magic!

The Council

All those great experiments
that failed,
and the damages
they caused

I
know
all about it!

I don't know
what you are talking about

Using
on object
weapons
and how we can't trust
magic

We
wish you wouldn't insult the Council in your mad
ramblings

*Chairman of the Magic Council
Crawford*

I will

You're a leading ward that opposes of eliminating magic?

Have
you the power?

That's
enough

Mr.
Crawford is a very busy man, and he can't be bothered

...I will have the results to my school!

BOONBOON

And we need into
dark...

There
have into the darkness

Oh...

dark...

You have no idea what drives my father to bring these points to the edge!

But even when we realized that we could not do anything...

tried to get to the bottom

Only to be sent to a
dark place...

Even
after our quest, I tried
and tried to control the ship...

We've
come to the hole in the bear!

But!

...you
couldn't see the bones
of your daughter?

knew
it!

Even
at the very end...

Actually,
we'd never be able to break the connection with the bear
in time.

If we try to go inside the bear, he'll see everything he can to stop
us!

I want
just as Lucy
said!

The
hole
there!

there!

Why
not?

Right
there!

When the attack doesn't work, he'll come in to stop
us himself!

But if all six of us go at once...

...at the very least the bear's biggest attack won't stop
us!

CHACHA

勝利

If one falls,
I have the rest!

You're
too slow!

You think you can escape
to the sky
now?

...you tried to claim that the crime was all your doing!

...but when you thought you'd lost...

You were really harsh on your dough-let.

I schooled this before...

I put her safety into Homologation just in case, though.

That's why I figured that if we were with her, your bear wouldn't hit us, and we could find a way to attack you!

The fact is that I did no damage to you, really.

There's no way I'd be wrong!

You'd be dead if you were wrong!

I could have just been in charge that the team missed!

How could you know that?

good-
for-nothing
dada!

DOGA

AAM

...were
damn similar!!

Oh, of course I had convicted myself that I hadn't spared her.

In the end, I failed
because my daughter
was too relieved to kill.

And I didn't even
spare
my own
blood from it.

I made
the quad
be the winners.

And if that day arrives
and the world doesn't crash
down...

It will be the
who trigger it.

Still, I can't say I was in the wrong.

The day when magic between the human race
is coming.

Father.

?!?

Don't
worry
about
it.

*...it'll
be the wizards
who stop
it, too!!*

If that ever did happen...
